Instructions

Your appointment for a visa interview has been confirmed. Every person attending the interview must bring a copy of this confirmation page on his interview day at the Consular Section of the U.S. Consulate General Shanghai.

Location

The visa office of the U.S. Consulate General in Shanghai is located on the 8th Floor, Westgate Mall, 1038 West Nanjing Road.

Please note

Due to a planned renovation, other businesses and stores in Westgate Mall will cease operation beginning August 1, 2024. The U.S. visa office will continue to operate. On-site parking at Westgate Mall is not available.

Arrival time

Your appointment time above is the time you are expected to arrive at the Consular Section, not the time that you will interview with an officer. Be on time, but do not arrive more than 30 minutes before your appointment. You will not be admitted to the Consular Section before your scheduled time. Do not arrive more than 30 minutes after your scheduled time, or you will not be admitted to attend your interview. The Consulate General Shanghai reserves the right to refuse to admit applicants who are late for their appointments.

Must Have Items

- Valid Passport
- Photo taken within 6 months
- DS-160 Confirmation Page
- Appointment Confirmation Page
- Other Supporting Documents
- We invite applicants to only carry their documents in a transparent plastic bag or folder.

DS-160 Barcode Number

Please make sure that the DS-160 barcode number in your profile on www.ustraveldocs.com matches the barcode number on your DS-160 documents. If they do not match, you will not be permitted to enter for your interview and you will be responsible for rescheduling your appointment on another day. DS160 number in your www.ustraveldocs.com profile is not allowed to change within two business days prior to your appointment date.

Prohibited Items (DO NOT Bring to the Consular Section)

All visa applicants must go through a security screening process before entering the Consular Section. Applicants should not have any of the following items when they first arrive for their scheduled appointment. Please note that the Consular Section will not provide storage of any kind and applicants with prohibited items will not be allowed to enter the Consular Section. In order to make the process as quick as possible, applicants should only carry their passports, confirmation pages and supporting documents for their visa applications.

The following items are prohibited:

- Umbrellas;

Minors

Applicants under 14 years of age are not required to appear for interview (except for applying for F-1, M-1 and J-1 visas), visa application can be submitted through CITIC Bank.

Seniors

Applicants age 80 or older are not required to appear for interview: visa application can be submitted through CITIC Bank.

If you have opted for your passport pickup at a CITIC branch, then please keep this Appointment Confirmation Letter and present it when you pick up your passport. It contains the UID number and will greatly facilitate the retrieval of your passport at the CITIC branch.

Please note: CGI (www.ustraveldocs.com) is the only company that the U.S. Embassy and U.S. Consulates in China authorize to provide visa information and visa application services. The U.S. Consulate General does not endorse or have a "special relationship" with any other individual or business that offers advice or assistance with the visa process. No one can guarantee the issuance of a visa to you. All U.S. government forms are free.

Beware: many visa applicants lose money or are permanently barred from the United States as a result of misleading information and fraudulent applications provided by visa consultants.
